December 17th Meeting

PHS CHOIR BRINGS CHRISTMAS CHEER TO MEETING

The Rotary luncheon on December 17th was blessed with the spirit of Christmas. Dick Wold offered a beautiful Christmas prayer; then, while we were happily enjoying Sonya's jambalaya, the door flung open and six angels burst in. They transformed the room into a sacred world of song proclaiming the "Wonders of His love". Rebekah Wagner, Chantelle Finley, Jessie Culley, Ashley Curry, Jordan White and Aloca Nowell sang heavenly carols to grace the birth of Christ on earth and in our hearts.

Thank you to each member of this gifted choir from Pacific High School and to their music director, Mr. Will Jarvis. They brought "Joy to the World" at our Christmas meeting.

GOLF TOURNAMENT PLANNED TO BENEFIT THE ROTARY SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION

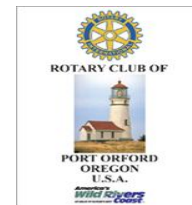

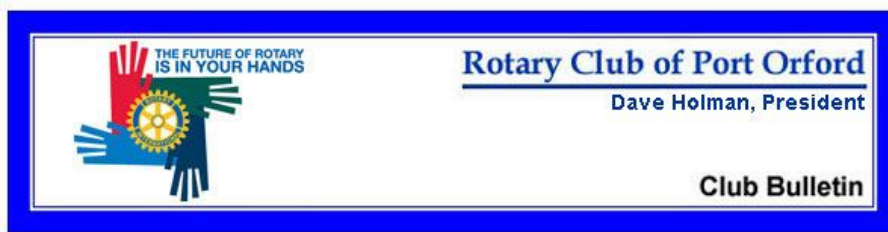

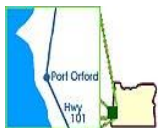

A golf tournament set for February 27 will benefit the Rotary Scholarship Foundation. It will be held at the Bandon Crossings Golf Course, a course identified as among the top 10 golf courses in Oregon in 2008. If you are interested in playing, contact Dick Wold at creekstone@portorfordoregon.com.

KITCHEN REMODELLING PROJECT

Keep in mind that we need to complete the kitchen remodelling project at the American Legion Hall. Dick Wold will be announcing the next work party at this week's meeting and we need everyone's help to complete this project quickly.

CHRISTMAS PARTY 2009

PEACE

The Club's annual Christmas party was held on Friday, the 18th of December, at the American Legion Hall. It was a great success as the following pictures on war and peace testify. More pictures are to be found on the club's website. Thanks go to Michelle Breuer for making the arrangements.
